“Live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.”
-2 Corinthians 13:11

Dear Parents,

“Thank you, Mommy and Daddy.” As parents we love to hear our children express their thanks. It is a gratifying sign of the spirit of thankfulness that we have instilled through our nurturing and example. Greater still is the feeling we get raising our children to be thankful to God for His many blessings. This month your child will have many opportunities in the classroom to express thankfulness to God through role-playing, art, cooking, math, music, and science activities. The Thanksgiving holiday is a great time to reaffirm the tradition of thankfulness in your home also. Create a special “Thank-You Time” for your family. List the wonderful things that God has done and continues to do that deserve your thanks. Encourage your child to say or draw what he/she wants to thank God for. Some children’s artwork would definitely add color to your Thanksgiving table. You may even want to send your child’s “Thank-You Time” art to relatives or friends.

In His Peace, Ms. Carissa Reynolds, Director, Faith Fellowship Academy
